

Round Table Talks Students

WHY?

Round Tables (RTT) are a time to talk, to vent, connect, Make sense of the crazy, share a laugh, react!
To constant change that sure takes a toll.
Your RTT group won't let you fall.

WHERE?

Your class, your club, your grade, your school,
Your student organization would be really cool!
Start a Round Table with your mates, Virtually, or safely distanced face-to-face,
And grow 'til all who need it, have a place.

WHO?

Students can make it work in different ways, With large or small groups, peer to peer or different grades.
Just find some leaders and you've got it made!

WOW!

If you forget all that you've read, please keep these RTT truths in your head!

- Isolation is really bad!
- In rough times it's community that we all need!
- and to be resilient, build something special ...take the lead!

HOW?

What makes Round Tables work are a few simple questions to start, That appeal to the head and the heart.
All it takes is a Zoom, or a safe, distanced room,
But remember that listening's an art!
